County court meets next Monday.
Dan Rice's Big show will be in town on Saturday.

Much interesting matter is unavoidable crowded out this week.

A. F. Beltrami will please accept thanks for late Memphis and Kansas City papers.
If you want to split your sides laughing go and see "Old Dan Rice" on Saturday.

The highest market price in Cash paid for Green and Dry Hides by NICHOLAS WEHNER.

Miss Celena Janis will please accept our thanks for a "darling little bouquet." In the absence of the rest of us, we dream of it every night.

New styles of nice and comfortable shoes for all made and sold by C. BAUM, Ste. Genevieve, Mo.

The Mississippi Valley Globe comes to us this week, both sides printed at home. It also boasts of being printed on a power press.

"Old Dan," the venerable "Old Dan Rice" of yore is to give one of his interesting entertainments at Ste. Genevieve on next Saturday. Don't fail to go and see it. you will not regret it.

FOR SALE—Northern Peach Blow Potatoes at $1 per bushel cash, by T. S. Mathis. Orders for potatoes left in box 79 at the Post office for Mrs. Bushels or over will be delivered in Ste. Genevieve.

Our "better half" has gone to see her mamma, and as we are now a "grass-widower" "pro tem," we will be glad to have any young lady who may feel so disposed, to call on us. We will agree to propose to her if she does—so subscribe for the FAIR PLAY.

Any one desirous of purchasing one of the best Sewing Machines made, should call at this office. We have one of the Wood F. F. Machines for sale, and if we can't prove to them that it is the best in use they need not purchase it.

A SINGULAR FACT.—It is a singular fact, yet, nevertheless it is true, that old Dan Rice is one of the most successful showmen in the western country. The great secret of his success is that he employs none but the best talent. Don't take our word for it, but go and see. Read his advertisement in another column.

The Missouri Cash-Book has been enlarged to an eight column sheet, and otherwise improved. Friend Malone must be doing a heavy business since work on the L. M. & T. R. It has become a fixed fact. We wish him the success his energy and enterprise deserves.

We have a speech of Gen. F. A. Rozier on the great Southern Railway, and also the law establishing a Normal school, in south-east Missouri, which we intended to publish this week. But our space would not permit. They will appear in due time.

Chas. E. Moss Jr. desirous of closing out his choice lot of ladies and childrens shoes offers them to the public at newly reduced prices from this date. Stylish slippers at 75cts. Childrens gaiters of various styles, and colored shoes $1. Everything else in proportion.

The South-East Champion has changed hands again and is now owned by T. H. Adams, formerly of the Lutesville Herald. Tom intends changing the name of the Champion to the "South-east Missourian." This looks much like somebody else had a finger in the pie. Wonder if it will be any relation to the South-east Missourian that was to have been established at Fredericktown by Col. C. E. Moss.

On Thursday night, January 23rd, a Mrs. Potter, a bride of only a couple of hours, was shot and almost instantly killed at her residence, near Mountain Cave, in Fayette county, Virginia by a band of eight disguised ruffians, who at the time made their escape, but three of them were subsequently arrested and lodged in jail. The citizens of the place express the greatest indignation at the outrage, for which no cause is assigned.—[Ex.]
